- Write a paragraph about the information book you have read. Don't forget the title and maybe include a picture and caption
- Collect effective words you have found in a book you have read. List them and next to each, write their meaning. (you might need to use a dictionary; online or book to look up the definitions)
- From a news report, please list the features of the report that have been included eg. Heading, quotes, etc.
- Write notes about what you have learned from reading this book
- Choose 1 page from the book.
 Y1 and 2: List all the noun phrases that have been used. (hint, these are used for more detail about a noun, for example, the blue butterfly, plain flour, the man in the moon).
- Y3: List all the adverbials that have been used. (hint, these modify the verb to give detail on 'how, where and when')
- Write a diary entry from the point of view of your favourite character.
- Choose a page from a story book. Create an illustration to represent it, to show what is happening and include labels to explain your reasons for this.
- From reading a poem book. Choose your favourite and explain why you enjoy it (i.e. Do you like what it's about? the word choice? And give examples for your reasons.)
- Write a description about a villain in one of your books. Don't forget to include their appearance, words that hint what they are like and examples from the book to support your opinions.
- Write a description about a hero in one of your books. Don't forget to include their appearance, words that hint what they are like and examples from the book to support your opinions.
